Dear Parents/Carers,

It seems there were animals on the loose in both the Infant and junior school this week! Miss Brennan arranged for a tortoise to visit Year 3 on Monday as part of their WOW moment in English where they are learning about fables. The children were extremely excited and now can't wait to enjoy a range of fables, particularly The Tortoise and the Hare.

Children in Year 2 were scouring the corridors looking for a rabbit this week. They have been reading "That Rabbit belongs to Emily Brown" by Cressida Cowell and took it upon themselves to try and find missing Stanley. There are posters all around the building made by our Year 2 pupils so hopefully the rabbit turns up soon!

Our Homework offer in the Infant school is being extended next week. As of Monday, the children will take home two books: a reading practice book to practice their sounds and a reading for pleasure book. Alongside this we have devised a homework timetable to make sure that your child can consolidate the learning they do in school at home. This is also in response to our recent parent survey where parents asked for homework to be introduced so that they felt further involved in what their child is learning in school. We couldn't agree more! Ms. Bourke has sent a letter home today regarding this which includes more information and a timetable of homework tasks.

Individual school photos take place at both schools next week. If you have a child in both the Infant and Junior school, and would like a sibling photo with them together, you can visit our Junior school at 3.30pm where the photographers will take their pictures.

Enjoy your weekends and wrap up warm.

Where is Stanley the rabbit?
I love the imagination of teachers bringing stories to life. Love to all at The Annunciation Catholic Junior and Infant School from me x

In this week's Gospel we are reminded that Jesus brings good news to everyone. We can all be selfish and unkind but Jesus helps us to live our lives in His way. He helps us to think about our actions towards one another and to change. He helps us to get closer to God. We try to continue God's work. Before Christmas we did our shoe box appeal to help people who have less than us. We should always be thinking about the Common Good.
