Dear Parents/Carers

It has been another exciting week at both schools!

Monday and Tuesday saw the Junior children visit the Brent Sikh Centre where they got the opportunity to broaden their understanding of another faith. Some children from the Infant school attended as Infant Music Festival, where there was excellent singing and dancing on display. On Wednesday, both schools welcomed parents who spoke to children about their jobs and how they use Maths.

Pupils had the opportunity to meet with a lawyer; a composer; a nurse; a midwife; an analyst at an airport; a priest; a micro biologist and a biomedical scientist. Our nursery pupils will be speaking to someone who takes care of animals. Some of our Infant children were able to take part in a nationwide virtual reading event hosted by the author Nick Butterworth, famous for the 'Percy in the Park' books. The children absolutely loved these activities and were so excited and inspired about all the different jobs which are out in the world. They have very high aspirations already! We would like to extend a huge THANK YOU to the parents who kindly gave up their mornings to come and speak to us.

On Thursday, both schools paused to remember the brave soldiers who have fought for our country.

Road safety

Next week at the Annunciation Infant School we are going to talk about Road Safety Week. Children will talk about the importance of wearing bright clothes and being seen by traffic in the winter months. To celebrate the end of Road Safety week, the Infant school children can come into school wearing their own bright clothes on Friday 19th November.

In this Sunday's Gospel we are reminded that Jesus will return to us. He assures us that many things may change in the world but that His words will last forever. We are also reminded that our faithfulness to God will also be rewarded.

Pope Francis says "Let us ask then for the grace to remain faithful to following Jesus and to listening to his word".
